

Teachers of the Future (ToF) Cohorts

<http://www.nais.org/go/teachersofthefuture>

This is a listing of past and present Teachers of the Future (ToF) cohorts.

Over the years, the outstanding Teachers of the Future were selected to build, lead, and moderate its new online community for independent school teachers. We received hundreds of nominations each year and each year, we have selected anywhere from 18 to 26 teachers to participate in the program. Below, please find a list of all of the participating teachers.

To view the teachers' teaching unit and educational videos, visit <http://www.nais.org/go/teachersofthefuture>. To join the ToF community, visit <http://connect.nais.org>.

NAIS is proud to recognize the past and present Teachers of the Future and their many accomplishments:
